

Run-on Sentences

Editing

Run-on = two or more sentences punctuated as one, long sentence.

incorrect: We painted the house it looks great.

Three ways to fix run-on sentences:

- Use a comma and conjunction. We painted the house, and it looks great.
- Use a period to create two separate sentences. We painted the house. It looks great.
- Use a semicolon. We painted the house; it looks great.

- Edit and rewrite the following scenes.

1. eleanor roosevelt was an american politician diplomat and activist she was the Wife of president franklin Roosevelt and served as First Lady of the united sates for 12 years later president truman called her "First Lady of the world" in recognition of her human writes achievements

Eleanor Roosevelt
(1884-1962)

2. mrs roosevelt is not the typical First Lady she was an out spoken women for racial equality issues. working women, and the rights of world War 2 refugees eleanor also wrote a daily newspaper column a monthly magazine colum and hosted a weakly national radio shows.

3. eleanor drew enormus crowds in her 1942 WW2 visit to american troops station in england she also makes a later visit to the South Pacific to help troupe morale back home eleanor make a trip to support the Tuskegee Airmen's quest to becum the first black-american flying Combat Unit

4. president theodore roosevelt was eleanors uncle her mommy nicknamed her "Granny" because she acts in a serious manner as a child eleanor is born in to a welthy, new york high-society family she educated in London england for 3 years!

Run-on Sentences

Editing

Run-on = two or more sentences punctuated as one, long sentence.

incorrect: We painted the house it looks great.

Three ways to fix run-on sentences:

- Use a comma and conjunction. We painted the house, and it looks great.
- Use a period to create two separate sentences. We painted the house. It looks great.
- Use a semicolon. We painted the house; it looks great.

- Edit and rewrite the following scenes.

1. eleanor roosevelt was an american politician diplomat and activist she was the Wife of president franklin Roosevelt and served as First Lady of the united sates for 12 years later president truman called her "First Lady of the world" in recognition of her human writes achievements

Eleanor Roosevelt was an American politician, diplomat, and activist. She was the wife of President Franklin Roosevelt and served as First Lady of the United States for 12 years. Later, President Truman called her "First Lady of the world" in recognition of her human rights achievement.

2. mrs roosevelt is not the typical First Lady she was an out spoken women for racial equality issues. working women, and the rights of world War 2 refugees eleanor also wrote a daily newspaper column a monthly magazine colum and hosted a weakly national radio shows.

Mrs. Roosevelt was not the typical First Lady. She was an outspoken woman for racial equality issues, working women, and the rights of World War II refugees. Eleanor also wrote a daily newspaper column, a monthly magazine column, and hosted a national weekly radio show.

3. eleanor drew enormus crowds in her 1942 WW2 visit to american troops station in england she also makes a later visit to the South Pacific to help troupp morale back home eleanor make a trip to support the Tuskegee Airmen's quest to becum the first black-american flying Combat Unit

Eleanor drew enormous crowds in her 1942 WWII visit to American troops stationed in England. She also made a later visit to the South Pacific to help troop morale. Back home, Eleanor made a trip to support the Tuskegee Airmen's quest to become the first black-American flying combat unit.

4. president theodore roosevelt was eleanors uncle her mommy nicknamed her "Granny" because she acts in a serius manner as a child eleanor is born in to a welthy, new york high-society family she educated in London england for 3 years!

President Theodore Roosevelt was Eleanor's uncle. Her mother nicknamed her "Granny" because she acted in a serious manner as a child. Eleanor was born to a wealthy, New York high-society family. She was educated in London, England for three years.

Eleanor Roosevelt
(1884-1962)